The purchase of your GIC cannot be finalized until your identity has been verified to our satisfaction.

2.4 In accordance with applicable law, GICs may be subject to additional restrictions within the province or territory in which the GIC Holder resides or is domiciled.

2.5 If you fail to satisfy any of the above requirements or any of our other requirements, we may, at our sole discretion, refuse to open a GIC for you or terminate your GIC at any time.

3.0 Your GIC

3.1 Between the Date of Issue and the Redemption Date, your deposit funds will be invested in a Bridgewater Bank GIC.

3.2 You may cancel your GIC within 10 business days after the Date of Issue without any charges. No interest will be due or payable to you if you cancel your GIC.

3.3 There are no fees payable by you to Bridgewater Bank in association with your GIC.

3.4 We will issue a GIC certificate for your GIC.

3.5 We do not issue GIC statements, however the current value (meaning the amount of the principal and accrued interest) of your GIC is available upon request.

3.6 Your GIC is not assignable or transferable.

3.7 Your GIC is not a registered or registerable product for income tax or other purposes.

3.8 If you choose a non-redeemable GIC on your application, you may not redeem your GIC prior to its Maturity Date. If you choose a cashable GIC on your application, you may not redeem your GIC within the first 30 days from the Date of Issue. If the cashable GIC is redeemed by you after 30 days from the Date of Issue, interest will be accumulated and payable to you up to the Redemption Date. Partial redemptions are not allowed.

3.9 Your GIC is for personal use only. If we suspect that your GIC is being used or is intended to be used for business or other non-personal purposes, we may, at our sole discretion, restrict transactions on, freeze, and/or terminate your GIC.

3.10 Your GIC will mature on the last day of the Term. Upon maturity:

- (a) the principal amount will be paid by cheque or electronic funds transfer ("EFT") sent to the deposit broker we have on file for you; and
- (b) any unpaid applicable interest will be paid by cheque or EFT sent to you, provided however for jointly held GICs, any unpaid applicable interest will be paid to the primary GIC Holder, as identified in your GIC application.

We will not be responsible for any Claim you suffer as a result of any cheque or EFT that we send being delayed, being lost in the mail (as applicable), or being lost by you or the deposit broker that we have on file for you.

3.11 Your GIC will not automatically renew.

4.0 Interest

4.1 Except as otherwise set out herein, interest will be payable to you at the rate and as set out in your GIC application.

4.2 If the Term is less than one (1) year, annual interest will be calculated daily during the Term on the principal amount based on the number of days in the Term and paid on the Redemption Date.

4.3 If the Term is one (1) year or longer, annual interest will be calculated daily during the Term on the principal amount based on the number of days in the applicable calendar year and, depending upon the interest payment option selected in your GIC application, either be: (a) paid monthly; (b) paid annually; or (c) compounded annually and paid on the Redemption Date.

4.4 Depending on the interest payment option selected, simple interest will be calculated on the principal amount of your GIC only.

4.5 Depending on the interest payment option selected, compound interest will be calculated on the principal amount of your GIC and any previously accrued but unpaid interest.

4.6 If the day on which an interest payment is due falls on a day other than a Business Day, interest will be paid on the next Business Day.

4.7 Your GIC will not accrue interest after the Redemption Date, including if your GIC is redeemed prior to the Maturity Date due to the death of a GIC Holder or otherwise.

4.8 No interest will be due or payable to you if we allow your GIC to be redeemed prior to the Maturity Date for any reason other than death of a GIC Holder.

5.0 Currency

5.1 All amounts will be deposited, calculated, and paid in Canadian currency.

6.0 Joint Ownership

6.1 When a GIC is jointly held by two or more individuals, each GIC Holder:

- (a) must meet the requirements set out at Section 2.2;
- (b) may provide instructions to us regarding the joint GIC;
- (c) may access information regarding the joint GIC;
- (d) is responsible both jointly and severally for all transactions and obligations relating to the joint GIC; and
- (e) is bound by the Agreement.

6.2 We may act on instructions given to us by any joint GIC Holder and disclose GIC information to any joint GIC Holder, without confirming the consent or receiving authorization from any other joint GIC Holder.

6.3 Unless we agree otherwise in writing, each document, notice, and communication relating to a joint GIC will be sent either to the primary GIC Holder, as identified in your GIC application, or to the deposit broker that we have on file for you.

6.4 Subject to Section 6.5, each joint GIC is held by the joint GIC Holders as joint tenants with rights of survivorship. This means that if one (1) of the joint GIC Holders dies during the Term, the surviving joint GIC Holders will become the sole owners of the joint GIC and no ownership in the GIC will transfer to the estate of the deceased GIC Holder.

6.5 If one (1) or more of the joint GIC Holders resides in or is domiciled in Quebec, the joint GIC will be held by the joint GIC Holders as undivided co-owners. This means that if one (1) of the joint GIC Holders dies during the Term, the surviving joint GIC Holders will not automatically become the sole owners of the joint GIC. The asset will have to be settled in accordance with the deceased's GIC Holder's estate.

7.0 Set-Off

7.1 We may, at our sole discretion and without prior notice, apply any or all of the funds in your GIC (including the principal balance of a GIC that has not yet matured and any earned interest) against any outstanding debt or other obligation that you (or with respect to a joint GIC, any one (1) or more of the joint GIC Holders) owe us.

7.2 If we choose to exercise a right of set-off, we shall also have the right to terminate your GIC. If your GIC is terminated pursuant to this Section 7.0:

- (a) the principal amount of your GIC, less any outstanding debts or other obligations owed to us, will be paid by cheque or EFT sent to the deposit broker we have on file for you; and
- (b) any unpaid applicable interest, less any outstanding debts or other obligations owed to us, will be paid by cheque or EFT sent to you, provided however for jointly held GICs, any unpaid applicable interest will be paid to the primary GIC Holder, as identified in your GIC application.

8.0 Unlawful or Inappropriate Activity

8.1 We may restrict transactions on, freeze, and/or terminate your GIC without notice if required by law or if, at any time, we have reasonable grounds to believe: (a) that your GIC is being used for any unlawful or improper purpose; (b) your GIC is the subject of fraud; or (c) you are in breach of the Agreement.

8.2 You agree to cooperate fully with us in any investigation arising from or relating to your GIC, including any law enforcement investigation.

8.3 We reserve the right to comply with any third party demands which have been issued under federal or provincial legislation, or any court order we receive in relation to your GIC. You agree that we will not be liable to you in any way for complying with any such third-party demand or court order issued in relation to your GIC.

9.0 Incapacity or Death of a GIC Holder

9.1 The Legal Representative of a GIC Holder:

- (a) must demonstrate to our satisfaction that they have appropriate legal authority to act on behalf of a GIC Holder; and
- (b) upon demonstrating to our satisfaction that they have the appropriate legal authority to act on behalf of the GIC Holder, will have the same rights, responsibilities, and obligations with respect to the GIC and this Agreement as the GIC Holder held prior to their incapacity or death, as applicable.

9.2 Upon receiving notice of the death or incapacity of a GIC Holder, we may, at our sole discretion, restrict transactions on, freeze, and/or terminate the GIC Holder's GIC as we deem prudent or advisable.

9.3 If a sole GIC Holder dies during the Term, the GIC (principal plus applicable unpaid accrued interest earned up to the Redemption Date) will be paid out to the estate of the deceased GIC Holder.

9.4 In accordance with Section 6.4, upon receiving notice of the death of a joint GIC Holder and the required supporting documentation to confirm the same, we will, at the request of the surviving joint GIC Holders, either: (a) allow the GIC to continue until the Maturity Date and update our records to show only the surviving joint GIC Holders as the joint GIC Holders; or (b) terminate the GIC. On the Redemption Date, we will pay out any balance in the joint GIC (principal plus unpaid applicable interest) to the surviving GIC Holders as detailed at Section 3.10.

9.5 In accordance with Section 6.5, upon receiving notice of the death of a joint GIC Holder whose domicile was Quebec at the time of their death, the GIC (principal plus applicable unpaid accrued interest earned up to the Redemption Date) will be paid out to the estate of the deceased GIC Holder and the surviving GIC Holders as detailed at Section 3.10.

10.0 Termination

10.1 We may, at our sole discretion, terminate your GIC at any time. If your GIC is terminated, we will, at our sole discretion, notify either you (or for joint GICs, the primary GIC Holder identified in the GIC application) or the deposit broker that we have on file for you.

10.2 Your GIC will not accrue any interest on or after the date of termination.

10.3 Subject to Section 7.0, the balance of any amounts we owe to you upon the termination of your GIC will be sent to you and/or to the deposit broker that we have on file for you, as detailed at Section 3.10.

11.2 We may, at our sole discretion, restrict transactions on and/or freeze your GIC pending receipt and/or verification of any new or updated information that we request or receive from you. If such information is not promptly received or confirmed to our satisfaction, we may terminate your GIC.

12.0 Providing Instructions

12.1 You may provide instructions regarding your GIC to us by telephone, fax, email, or by any other communication method provided by us. Any instructions given to us by telephone or electronic means will be treated as if such instructions were written and signed instructions. You agree and confirm that we are under no obligation to confirm our receipt of any instructions from you, and that we may rely on instructions from you without independent verification.

12.2 We will only accept instructions regarding your GIC from you. We are not obligated to accept instructions regarding your GIC from anyone other than you, however we may elect to accept instructions from your Legal Representative if we determine, in our sole discretion, that such person has the legal authority to act on your behalf.

13.0 Notices, Communications, and Documents

13.1 Unless otherwise indicated herein, we will send all documents, notices, and communications regarding your GIC either to you or to the deposit broker that we have on file for you. Items sent by ordinary mail will be deemed received five (5) Business Days after the item's postmark date, and items sent electronically will be deemed received on the date sent.

13.2 If we mistakenly credit an amount to your GIC, we have the right to correct that error at any time prior to the end of the Term.

13.3 You hereby acknowledge having required that the Agreement and all notices and documents relating thereto be drafted in English. Vous reconnaissez avoir exigé que la présente convention ainsi que tous les avis et documents s'y rapportant soient rédigés en anglais.

14.0 Electronic Materials

14.2 An electronic copy of a document, notice, or communication relating to your GIC, including an electronic copy of the Agreement, will be admissible in any legal, administrative, or other proceeding as if it was an original physical version of the same. You agree to waive any right to object to the introduction of any item as evidence due to it being in an electronic format.

16.2 You agree that we may take any action authorized or permitted by the Agreement without incurring any liability to you, even if such action causes you to incur a loss or other Claim.

16.3 In no event will Bridgewater Bank or its officers, directors, employees, agents, or affiliates be responsible or liable to you for any consequential, incidental, special, punitive, exemplary, breach of duty of good faith and honesty, or indirect damages, losses, costs, or Claims whatsoever or for any lost profits incurred by you arising out of or relating to your GIC or the Agreement, whether such loss or damage is based on tort, strict liability, breach of Agreement, or otherwise.
